I am so grateful to have received a grant from you earlier this fall in support of my YAV year. This has been such a formative year for me thus far. I have learned so much about myself, the world, our church and God. This year has given me the tools and space to live and think intentionally. I am so grateful for the ways in which I have learned to listen for God's call on my life. The YAV program has taught me to be honest with myself about the ways in
