Did You Know?

Since 1825, The Presbyterian Church of Dansville has been a community of believers gathered to serve God. Here people have opportunity to worship, learn, serve, and fellowship together. Dansville's Sunday morning worship service, at 10:30 am, is a traditional service featuring the gifts of a dedicated choir, lay liturgists and the preaching of God's Word.

This historic structure sits on land dedicated by the Village of Dansville to faith-based organizations and known locally as "Church Park." Its beautiful stained-glass windows are a highlight of the beautiful worship space, and the sanctuary also provides a home to a commissioned Tiffany stained-glass that was donated by the historic and once thriving "Mansion on the Hill" which, although now in ruins, is a landmark in the Village.

The newest addition to their campus is the former resource center of the Presbytery of Genesee Valley and Genesee Valley Association of the UCC (Wellspring), now known as Parkside Spiritual Development Center. This ministry is in its infancy, currently housing a large and diverse library of resources for congregations and individuals and open to all members of area churches. Watch for more information as this ministry continues to expand.

Rev. Marcia Reiff, pastor of Dansville Presbyterian, encourages engagement in mutual ministry with brothers and sisters in the faith, being active in DAMA (Dansville Area Ministerial Association) and the Dansville-Perkinsville Alliance, which consists of three area churches* who sponsor joint worship and ministries. The congregation supports the Samaritan Fund, an outreach that provides loans to persons undergoing rehabilitation for addiction, as well as a monthly community free-meal program called Hope Lunch, currently housed at St. Peter's Episcopal Church.

Dansville is currently Praying for:

Guidance as they take a journey with the Vital Congregations Initiative

DAMA ministries and collaborations

Parkside Spiritual Development Center opening and ministry opportunities
