

DON'T MISS THIS OPPORTUNITY!

Shane Wiegand (pronounced "weeg-end") is the Co-Lead of the Antiracist Curriculum Project at Coordinated Care Services Incorporated, previously he was a fourth-grade teacher at the Rush-Henrietta Central School District. He is also a board member at City Roots Community Land Trust and Connected Communities. For his work with The Antiracist Curriculum Project, he was named as one of Rochester Business Journal's Forty Under 40 in 2021.

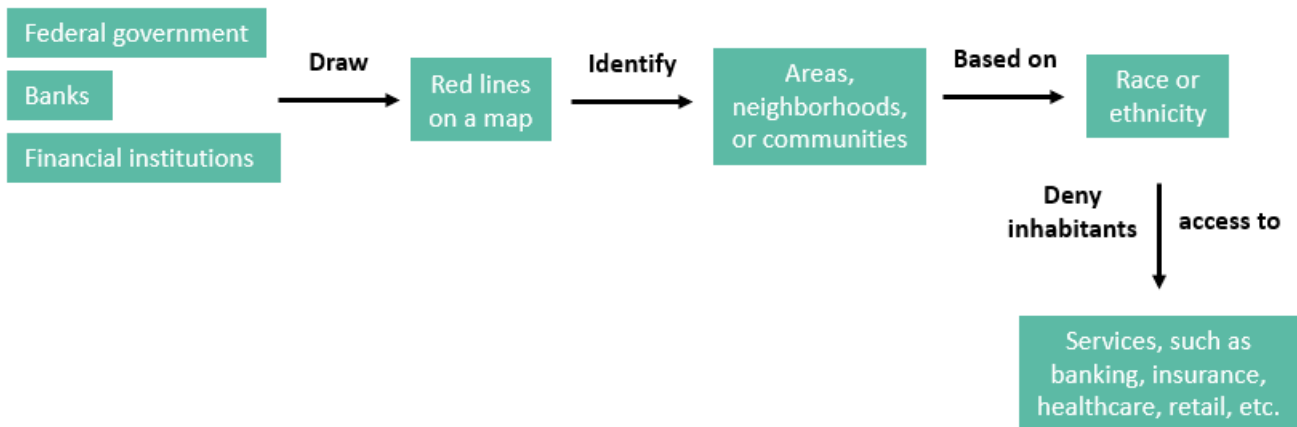

Shane Wiegand, cofounder of the Antiracist Curriculum Project, will be speaking at Gates Presbyterian Church on the History of Redlining in Monroe County. Redlining refers to exclusionary tactics that led to neighborhoods becoming segregated by perceived skin color. Shane will explain how policies and decisions made in the 1930s-1960s shaped who lives in the City of Rochester and who lives in the suburbs, including some examples from the town of Gates.

Please join us for this special presentation on Wednesday, May 31 at 6:00 p.m.

Gates Presbyterian Church is located at 1049 Wegman Road in Gates.

All are welcome!

What is Redlining?

Gates Presbyterian Church is a Matthew 25 Congregation

The Matthew 25 invitation focuses on Matthew 25: 31-46, the parable of the sheep and goats in which Jesus makes clear, that what we do matters to God and how we treat others is important to God. As a Matthew 25 congregation of the PC(USA), we commit to working to build congregational vitality, dismantle structural racism, and eradicate systemic poverty.
